ORAL JUDGEMENT

#. In this petition filed under Article-226 of the Constitution of India, the petitioner has challenged the order dated April 29, 2000 (Annexure-'B' to the petition) passed by the externing authority i.e. Deputy Police Commissioner Zone-IV, Ahmedabad City by which he has externed the petitioner for a period of two years from five districts i.e. Ahmedabad Rural including Ahmedabad City, Gandhinagar, Kheda and Mehsana and also the order dated September 16, 2000 (Annexure-E to the petition) passed by the appellate Authority confirming the said order and prayed to issue a writ, order or direction quashing and setting aside both the above orders.

#. A show-cause notice dated September 22, 1999 under sec.56 B of the Bombay Police Act (B.P. Act for short) was issued to the petitioner, wherein, several allegations were made against him to the effect that he is a strong headed quarrelsome and aggressive person who has no fear of law and order, picking up quarrel with people and give threats to kill them, continues his anti social activities by which he is causing physical and financial damage to the people and the people are afraid of filing complaint against him and the activities carried out by him is detrimental for maintenance of public order. Besides this, two cases under the Prohibition Act and three chapter cases were registered in Gomtinagar police station against him. Therefore, by issuing a show-cause notice the petitioner was called upon to show-cause as to why he should not be externed for a period of two year from the districts to which reference is made in earlier paragraph of this judgment.

#. The petitioner replied to the said show-cause notice on October 6, 1999. The externing Authority, after considering the reply and order, passed the impugned order of externment dated April 29, 2000 in exercise of the powers conferred under sec.56(A) of the Act externing the petitioner for a period of two years from the above mentioned districts.

#. Aggrieved by the aforesaid order passed by the externing Authority, the petitioner preferred an appeal before the appellate Authority, which was dismissed by the appellate Authority vide order dated September 16, 2000 which has given rise to the present petition.

#. Mr.A.M.Parekh, learned advocate for the petitioner raised several contentions and tried to convince this Court that the order of externment suffers from various vices much less it is recorded in clear non-application of mind. Besides this, he has also raised a contention that the petitioner belongs to Ahmedabad Rural District and he is externed not only from Ahmedabad Rural District

but also from Ahmedabad City, Gandhinagar, Kheda and Mehsana Districts. He also contended that the alleged so-called activities which are narrated in the show-cause notice are confined to Ahmedabad Rural District only and the externing Authority has not mentioned anything about the so called illegal activities of the petitioner in the contiguous four districts. Therefore, according to the learned advocate for the petitioner the impugned order of externment suffers from the vices of non-application of mind, and is, therefore, liable to be quashed and set aside.

#. Ms B.R.Gajjar, learned APP opposed the petition and contended that the petitioner is a strong headed person and his activities are detrimental to the society at large. He is involved in two criminal cases, therefore, the externing Authority has rightly passed the order externing the petitioner for a period of two years. He, therefore, urged to dismiss the petition.

#. I have considered the submissions advanced by the learned advocates appearing for the parties. I have also perused the averments made in the petition and the order passed by the externing Authority, so also the order passed by the appellate Authority and other papers annexed to the petition.

#. It is true that the externing Authority has power under sec.56 of the B.P. Act to remove or extern a person not only from the district within which the externing Authority has jurisdiction, but also from the district contiguous to his own district. The criteria for passing such an order is provided for in sec.56 of the B.P. Act and there must be some indication in the order itself of the existence of circumstances which would lead to the satisfaction of the authority that it was necessary not only to extern a person from his own district but also from the contiguous district. Such circumstances must be qua every area or region from which a person is directed to be externed and there must be some material or indication of such material in the order.

#. Coming to the facts of the present case, there is no manner of doubt that the externing Authority has not mentioned either in his show-cause notice or in the impugned order of externment as to what necessitated him to pass the order of externment of the petitioner from the above mentioned four districts in addition to Ahmedabad Rural District. Therefore, it can be said that at the time of passing of the impugned order of externment the externing Authority has not mentioned as to why the petitioner should be externed from other four districts in addition to Ahmedabad Rural District. On this sole ground, the order of the externing Authority externing the petitioner and that of the appellate Authority confirming the order of externment are rendered invalid and illegal and deserves to be quashed and set aside.

##. For the foregoing reasons, the petition succeeds and is accordingly allowed. The impugned orders at Annexures-'D' and 'E' to the petition are quashed and set aside. Rule is made absolute. Direct service is permitted.
